

Ceremony for the degree of Sublime Kawi, 63°

The Universal Soul, the breath of Deity, Charity, or Love, is its ruling principle; Emancipation from the bonds of matter proceeds perfection; freedom of the pure spirit; the three paths to bliss. Liberty, equality and fraternity our basic principles: love, union, labour the moral principles, and progress the reward. The word Kawi means a poet, and is equivalent of Bard, Scalde etc. The sacred Javanese character is called Kawi, and Sanscrit origing.

Grip: touch the forehead, lips and heart, with right hand.

Touch: upon a book join open hands, one on the other.

Password: same as in last degrees.

Secret Word: Krishna (predecessor of Gautama).

Jewel and Symbol: a delta with a central point.