

Ceremony for the degree of Sublime Sage, of Knight of Kneph, 8

In one view this Egyptian Symbol of a winged egg signifies the two energies of creation by which all things are produced, universal spirit acting on primordial matter; but in a less recondite sense it represents the productive world.

We have the law of evolution and involution, the descent of body into Spirit, and reascent to Spirit. At worldly death the seven principles become three □ and D . Dissolution of the Ka or double, and the immortality of the Spiritualised.

Sign: represent oval with thumb and forefingers, spreading out the fingers as wings.

Touch: join hands, and touch eaches palm with fingers.

Password: same as before.

Secret Word: Kneph (spirit); Answer: Jao (united two natures).

Jewel and Symbol: an oval with a central point.